

THE DIRECTORS OF FOREST, THE FREE SOCIETY AND BOISDALE INVITE YOU TO

THE FREEDOM DINNER

Tuesday 26th June 2012 from 6.00pm at
Boisdale of Canary Wharf, Cabot Square, London E14 4QT

Guest speakers:

General Sir Mike Jackson GCB CBE DSO

FORMER HEAD OF THE BRITISH ARMY 2003-2006

James Delingpole

WRITER, JOURNALIST AND BROADCASTER

Claire Fox

DIRECTOR, INSTITUTE OF IDEAS

The evening will be hosted by
Boisdale proprietor Randal Macdonald

Boisdale Tier Cru Champagne & Chivas Regal 12 yr whisky cocktail reception on the smoking terrace, followed by a sumptuous three-course dinner with delicious wines. Very stimulating after dinner speeches accompanied by Chivas Regal 18 yr whisky, then live music from the legendary

Reuben Richards & Soul Train

Tickets: £80

Tables of ten £800

Tables of ten booked before 1st June £700

To book tickets contact Valerie Morrison on 0207 715 5815, email events@boisdale-cw.co.uk or visit <http://tickets.boisdale.co.uk/pages/events/freedom-dinner/26-06-2012/>

For further information telephone 01223 370156 or email events@forestonline.org

THE FREEDOM DINNER

at Boisdale of Canary Wharf
26th June 2012

Cabot Place, Canary Wharf,
London E14 4QT

Nearest Underground: Canary Wharf
16 minutes from Central London

Set in a Gotham City-style art deco building with a view to the Thames and the City of London skyline, Boisdale of Canary Wharf offers a stunning location for this special event.

On the first floor is a heated, awning-covered smoking terrace with tartan upholstered armchairs overlooking the fountains in Cabot Square. On the second floor the restaurant bears the distinctive Boisdale design while the bar - a 12 metre long glowing amber wall of liquid gold - is one of the most extensive and magnificent whisky bars in the world.

Supported by

CHIVAS